"More than once have I called the attention of the House, as well as the other Departments of the Government, and of the country, to my own constituents and their neighbors, as an instance of popular love for the ancient Union in the very midst of gress. sccession. The extent of their sufferings, and the utter failure of the Government to afford them protection, must be my apology for another reference to them. * Confident of their own ability for self-protection, could they but meet their oppressors on equal terms, many of them fled to Kentucky to obtain the arms and material of war, which they despaired of being sent to them. By degrees, their ranks have whom I will ask the suffrages of old Knox. swelled until they number full ten thousand. On the 18th of June last, they seized the stronghold of Cumberland Gap, and were cheered with the hope of being ordered forward at once to redeem their country. But week after week of hope deferred passed away. They were permitted to be surrounded and their supplies cut off. The rebels looked upon them as already in their power, and began, by anticipation, to visit their vengeance upon them, not as prisontinual forays upon their enemy, they harrassed him beyond measure. Without losing a man, they killed nearly two hundred. and captured and brought in upwards of five hundred prisoners, besides many horses

View the matter as we may, instead of despondency that the Government has accomplished so little toward the suppression of the rebellion, we may rather rejoice and be hopeful that it has accomplished so much. To my people I say, the deliverance, though long delayed, will surely

On the 6th of March, 1863, I presented to Mr. Lingoln, first in conversation, then, at his request, in writing, my views in repect to East Tennessee, as follows: "To the President of the United States:

In compliance with your suggestion, I present in this form my wishes in behalf of East Tennessee.

1st. Let that region be created a separate department. 2d. Let an officer be appointed to the command. I will name no one here. But let him be a man of hard common sense. with capacity and a disposition to labor and forego the comforts of city Headquarters, with sagacity to know a man whenever and wherever he sees him.

3d. Let him have control of such forces as are scattered in Central Kentucky, with power to raise troops in that State under the late act of Congress. Also to gather such men from Tennessee as can be gathered, and any recruits that can be picked up on the north of the Ohio.

By We are authorized and requested to announce Colonel ROBERT K. BIRD as a candidate to represent the 2d Congressional District of Tennessee in the United States Congress. on the north of the Ohio.

4th. Let the troops be largely mounted Infantry than as Cavalry proper.

If these things cannot be done, in the opinion of your military advisers, give us assurances of arms and support, and let our people fight in their own fashion.

Shortly afterwards the Secretary of War asked me to suggest an acceptable commander. I named General BURNSIDE, In LAWIS DAVID. less than one week he was appointed and on his way to East Tennessee. You know the rest. I never have had any control over the movement of troops, but so far as I could exert any influence, it was to keep our troops for the defense of their own homes. It is supposed by some that I am in favor of negro suffrage. This is not true. At the Nashville Convention of January last, the subject was brought up. I opposed it. I have not since changed my views. I WAS OPPOSED TO IT THEN —I AM OPPOSED TO IT NOW! HORACE MAYNARD.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 4th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

I TAKE this opportunity to inform you that I am a candidate for the high and honorable position of Circuit Judge in your District, in the ensuing election, to be held on the Sith day of July next, in pursuance of the proclamation of William G. Brownlow, Governor of Tennessee. I was born and raised among you, and the circumstances of our separation for the last three years, after passing through dark and trying times, are well known. But, in thus annoucing myself as a candidate for Judicial honors, I must not speak of my legal qualifications, as they are already known to you, having served you as Attorney General for the State for cleven years before the war.

As to my loyalty, I know there will be no doubt upon that

Candidate for Congress in the Second Congressional

Since I have been announced a candidate for Congress, I learn it has been alleged that when last in that body, I failed to interpose in behalf of East Tennessee, and that I had neglected to have our own soldiers kept in this part of the country. A CARD.

Among those whose names have been To the voters of the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Know and Roane: TAKE this method of declaring myself a caudidate for State Senator, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignatio of Hon. Samuel B. Redgers. In doing so, it may be expected I me to state in plain terms who I am, where I am, and what nciples I advocate. To the first question, I answer, I was orn in Knox county in the year 1834, of humble parentage, here I remained till I was 17 years of age. I was then ap-enticed to the Brickmasons trade, (which I now claim as my of sion, both operative and speculative.) I removed to sudon in the early part of the year 1852, which I have since suidered my home. In 1861 I was chosen as a delegate to a avention to be held first in Knoxville, which afterwards asconvention to be held first in Knexxille, which afterwards as-sembled in Greeneville, and is well known as the Greeneville convention; and, as a natural consequence, with all who ad-hered to the principles promulgated in that convention, I was proscribed and must leave my home and family, which I did, and after an absence of nearly three years—a pertion of which was spent as a private in the service of my country, in which service my health was seriously impaired—it is not difficult to tell the position I occupy.

oll the position I occupy.

I am what may be styled a Radical, and am in favor of the inciples contained in the bill passed by the Legislature own as the Franchise Bill, though I think it should have seem more positive and explicit.

I am decidedly in favor of truly loyal men governing the afterest this and all other States in the Union, and if I am lected, I wish to be elected by the votes of loyal men and none there, as to them alone I lock for aid, and should I be elected, piedge myself to earnestly support all measures which in my est judgment will redound to the interest of my constituents, ver bearing in mind that economy is at present much needed our legislative acts, I publish this card that those who I may not see between this nd the day of election may know my position and govern hemselves accordingly. Respectfully, London, Tean-jyl2-lm
